

Susi has worked with Norfolk Research School and EASTA Teaching School (as was) since 2017, originally as Teaching and Research Schools Manager. When the Julian TSH was designated, Susi's role changed to School Support Services Manager, and she became Operations Manager of the TSH and Norfolk Research School in 2022.

Susi is an experienced operations, events, and communications manager with a history of working in the education, higher education, start-up, and charity sectors. She is a qualified PRINCE2 Project Manager (Practitioner).