

Emma is currently Acting Deputy Director at the Julian Teaching School Hub. Her main responsibility is ECF lead, working with ECTs and their Mentors across Norfolk, delivering training and events, and supporting schools with successful implementation of the Ambition Institute ECT programme. She is also an Appropriate Body lead and collaborates with schools regarding the Induction of ECTs.

She is passionate about teaching and learning and evidence informed CPD. She has completed the NPQLTD and NPQLT and was inspired by the content and course structure. She facilitates the NPQLT and is enthusiastic about Teacher CPD across all stages of their careers.
