Executive Leadership: Just more or just different?

Aims:

- To evaluate the dichotomy and difference between strategic and operational leadership
- To build capacity around you at all levels including that within your own-self
- To elevate yourself to be able to be inward looking and outward facing in equal measure

Audience:

- Existing interim/substantive Executive Heads
- Senior Leaders working beyond their own role in their own school
- Aspiring Executive Heads who are looking for strategies to build confidence and capacity

Delivery:

- Three half-day sessions (face to face) with homework!
- Partnership working with colleagues from London
- Establish a self-supporting, improving network
- Cost - £300

Outline

Topics will include:

- Personal and organisational resilience
- Building capacity
- Evaluating your skills, experience and expertise in readiness for Executive Headship
- Input from experienced Executive Headteachers
- Practical problem solving activities
- Analysis of CPD needs and how to source/access development and training

NB: This programme has the capacity to develop in a bespoke way to the needs/interests of the delegates.
