Wensum English Hub

Early Years Authors

Wensum English Hub are delighted to welcome Emma Spiers for a free course exploring the world of early authorship, gaining invaluable insights and pexpractical solutions to create an amazing early writing classroom which inspires and supports our youngest learners at every step along their early writing journey.

You'll learn how to teach the essential knowledge required to nurture brilliant writers, how to help young authors exercise their 'writing muscles' every day in your EFYS classroom, what to do to inspire early writers ensuring their writing is highly valued, and why some children find writing a massive challenge.

You'll take away a blueprint for what early writers need with a simple framework for achieving jaw dropping EFYS writing, a bank of easy and tested ideas to use right away, top tips and suggestions for establishing a writing culture from the start, as well as answers to all your early writing questions.
